

This map shows the locations of observation points for the West Nishinomiya and Asahi City observation stations. The map covers the area around the observation stations, including the city of Asahi and the city of Nishinomiya. The map shows the main roads, including National Route 2 and National Route 43, and the observation points. The observation points are marked with red dots and labeled. The map also shows the surrounding area, including the city of Asahi and the city of Nishinomiya.